Happy 27th anniversary wishes go to Harry and Joan Brown.

Well wishes are sent to Harry Brown, who is having a knee replacement on September 5th.

Summer birthday wishes go out to Ed Pilcher, Sharon Thornton, Floyd Grimes, Dee Sauerhafer, Bill Gilbride and to everyone who is celebrating a birthday this summer.

FROM YOUR PRO

With the championship tournaments approaching, it is not too late to spruce up your game. In fact, it may be the perfect time. See Al for a lesson today.

Keep watching your e-mail accounts for special announcements from your pro.

The Friday night couple scotch tournaments were very popular and well attended this season. The last of the year on August 15th drew 82 participants. Hats off and thanks to Al Wallace for organizing these fun events.

Make sure you continue to post all 9-hole and 18-hole scores.

TOURNAMENT RESULTS

Your editor was remiss in not thanking Joan Brown, Linda Ringer and Al Wallace for all their work on the June Filly Day. Joan created a unique and very special table favor for the participants. Thank you!

LADIES INVITATIONAL

With thunder and rain threatening early in the day, the skies dried about 5 minutes before the 8:30 shotgun start and stayed dry until luncheon was over. The overall winner of this year's Invitational, coming in with a 64 was the team of Sharon Batcheller and her guest, Darryl Beardsley of Lakeside CC. After matching cards to the 2nd handicap hole with Sue John, Sharon was also named the Patsy Ludlum winner for 2008.

Winning Flight 1, with a 65, were Sue John and her guest, Lisa Corrigan of Ridgemont CC. Sharing 2nd in this flight were Dusty Pagels and
